A CONTINUED LOOK INTO THE KORAN

PART XXV

Facebook is a very interesting place which gives one a pretty good look at what is going on 'out there'. For those of you who peek in FB from time to time have you noticed that the KNIGHTS TEMPLAR are recruiting? The Poor Knights of the Temple of Solomon need strong men to begin the training necessary to effect the nasty business of sending the Muslims back to their home sewers. We want to also begin the advocacy for the expulsion of all Jews from all levels of government, banks, schools, medical establishments, and media. We at DtRH would prefer to see all Jews relocated to Madagascar; a luscious place with some of the most remarkable flora and fauna on the planet. Since Jews are so remarkable; so uniquely different from all other species of human looking beings, they would be right at home and quickly recognize they have been in the wrong 'home' land all along. Indeed, those nasty, terrible, horrible, monstrous, infamous, mass murdering, Thulistic Vril Meisters, the National Socialists advocated the Jews be relocated to that marvelous island off the east coast of Southern Africa. Even though the German people discovered the truth about the Jews, they never said anything about exterminating them. Keeping them as a curious zoo exhibit was much more to their liking. Germans have never been very keen on murdering; preferring instead to live in a lovely land of highly intelligent White People listening to glorious operas by Mozart and reading eloquent literature, whilst philosophizing about the purity laws for their favorite beverage. Muslims do not know such refinements, at least not the typical ones who are so very retarded that they are still operating in the 7th Century, a period of history known as the Dark Ages. Living in that period is not a way to get ahead in modern life.

Being Muslim means being stuck in a bizarre rut of tradition which in the modern world makes not much sense and is anti life. Indeed, Islam is a manifestation of the anti Christ. Judaism is the other. As for the remaining belief systems; Hindu, Shinto, Buddhism, all of the isms, they are interesting studies but hardly something an advanced 21st Century White Man would consider bending his knees for; since Free Will and hence, Free Thought, is what an advanced being seeks. Advanced beings do not follow that which they do not know. They apply logic and reason to the argument and come to the realization that one's connection with the First Source and Center; The Father in Paradise is a private matter and not something one debases with a public performance of piety. Again I repeat. Let everyone contemplate God in their own manner under their own fruit tree. Your conversation with God is a private affair and not for public consumption. Your prayers are not a reality Tell Lie Vision show.

A new chapter of the Penguin Koran begins at the bottom of page 240 entitled: THE HEIGHTS. So, let's move on with our sometimes dreary, monotonous trek through the deserts of the Koran, sometimes highlighted with pleasant oases, but often times with visions of a hellish place of scourges and fires; decapitated heads and severed limbs, all the while a strange, demonic being constantly harps on and on and on about, 'the punishment,' 'the scourge,' and 'hellfire.'

'In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful. Alif lam mim sad. This Book is revealed to you: let your heart not be troubled about it. It is revealed to you that you may thereby warn the unbelievers and admonish the faithful. Observe that which is brought down to you from your Lord and do not follow other masters besides Him. But you seldom take warning. How many cities have We laid in ruins! In the night Our scourge fell upon them, or at midday, when they were drowning. And when Our scourge fell upon them, their only cry was: "We have indeed been wicked men." Page 241. IE: Thank you Allah for beating the crap out of us.

You have read that Allah may strike when he wills. Now you have learned that not only is he a capricious being, he is also one who will strike you when you are sleeping. Striking sleeping soldiers has always been considered to be a cowardly act of war. Cowardly ways are typical of the Muslims and Jews. Many marauding Muslim monsters cover their faces and Jews admit that they make war by means of deception; indeed that being the slogan of the Mossad: 'By Way Of Deception So Shall We Conduct War.' Indeed it has been proven that some of the leading elements of the most radical manifestation of Islamic Jihad; ISIS, (Israeli Security Intelligence Service), are Jewboys wearing Stars of Moloch around their necks and faces covered up with woolen balaclavas and often times their hands are gloved, as well. Remember, these guys are operating in the Middle East where temperatures often will go over 100 degrees. My conclusion is, those creatures are first of all, COWARDS!!! and secondly they must be cold blooded reptiles.

Of course, as far as Muslims are concerned, the fact that it is over 100 degrees outside is of no consequence for women who have to be all covered up; since they are some sort of baby making sub human, worth less than a dog. I still do not quite get it when Western Women embrace the Muslim Rape fugees with open arms. Is it that many of our women have become infected with a stupidity virus? Have they all been Whoopied and Viewed by Doctor Phil and Ellen Degenerate? And, some of our men, who actually have no testicles but are carrying pseudo ovaries and are beginning to think they can menstruate and have babies, are lost, mentally ill beings who should be institutionalized at Camp LeJeune where the United States Marine Corps will set them straight. Semper Fidelis.

Oops. I guess that won't fly, will it? The modern US Marine Corps is not the one my dear Father trained in after WWII before going off to fight in Indonesia for the Dutch Marine Corps. He had already spent five years underground all during the 2nd World War. Anyway, the Marine Corps back in the 1940s were a tough bunch of leather necks. Today's ranks sport women and homosexuals. What women are doing in the front lines is beyond reason. That is a whole other story and I'm confident that you, reading these pages, will realize is one of the most insane ideas ever concocted by generals, flight marshals, and admirals. Of course they are all hamstrung by vermin called, politicians; a pack of self serving narcissists who are mostly expensive wastes of human skin. In our humble opinion.

Anyway, let's continue with the Koran; a book some have said is a total waste of paper. I say that about other books; books such as the ones pumped out by the thousands in the committee rooms of Steele and company, King Co., Patterson Ltd., Collins, Collins, & Collins, and so forth. The fact that trees were sacrificed to proliferate Fifty Shades of Grey is a very sad reflection concerning what our civilization considers worthy to print. The Koran is not a waste of paper in that it is a very important document which has influenced a certain type of humanoid to commit the most horrific terror upon innocent people for over 1400 years! Indeed, the Koran, as you have come to see for yourself from reading Down the Rabbit Hole, is a blue print for diabolical atrocities and one can not discard that book because of it. If you ignore the Koran and toss it in with garbage literature, you lose sight of information which is important to know. If you do not know another human being's belief system you have but very little idea of how that being operates and why s/he does what s/he does. By not knowing what is in the Koran, and indeed, the Bible as well, you have but a very foggy vision of reality. Remember, your reality involves other beings who look like you but are not like you at all and who act upon what they believe in. What people believe is not necessarily true. Some people completely disregard the physical phenomena called, bubbles; spheres which form in a medium; a simple elementary physics reveal, and believe in a flat earth, for example. Other people firmly believe that they need politicians to be their leaders, completely dismissing the fact that most of those people are lawyers; a class of creature labeled as, 'vermin' in the original founding documents for the Massachusetts colony which managed to keep those blood sucking narcissists out of their new found land for 30 years! until those weasels managed to slither their way back in and eventually insinuated themselves into governments. An interesting fact is: a disproportionate number of legal professionals are Jews.
