A CONTINUED LOOK INTO THE KORAN

Penguin Edition, c. 1968

by Gertjan Zwigelaar, B.A., B.Ed., EDE.

PART XXVII

Yesterday we finished a very long chapter titled, The Heights. Again, it, like other chapters only spoke one line about someone standing on the heights and all the rest of the chapter dealt with the regular stuff the Koran always deals with: Torah Tales, Rewards, and Punishments. Moving on, we come to several very short chapters starting on page 258 of the Penguin Koran. Since the chapters are short, I will type the first four for you and you will see in a small capsule of text, essentially what the entire book is about. You will see what I mean. Italics, bolds and brackets are mine.

THE ELEPHANT 'In the Name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful. Have you not considered how Allah dealt with the Army of the Elephant?* Did He not foil their stratagem and send against them flocks of birds which pelted them with clay-stones, so that they became like plants cropped by cattle?'

That's it. An entire chapter. *Translator's Footnote (TF): 'The allusion is to the expedition of Abraha, the Christian King of Ethiopia, against Mecca, said to have taken place in the year of Mohammed's birth.' Birds pelting an army with clay stones. The things people believe....

QURAYSH (TF: 'Mohammed's own clan. Some commentators connect this chapter with the preceding one.') 'In the Name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful. For the protection of Quraysh: their protection in their summer and winter journeyings. Therefore let them worship the Lord of this House, who fed them in the days of famine and shielded them from all perils.'

Note that Mohammed's people are nomads. Nomads do not build permanent structures, nor roads, nor much of anything, really. Nomads are not renowned for their contributions to science and philosophy. Nomads are not known to be great writers of books, being far too busy with their camels and migrations.

FIBRE 'In the Name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful. May the hands of Abu-Lahab <sup>1</sup> perish! May he himself perish! Nothing shall his wealth and gains avail him. He shall be burnt in a flaming fire, <sup>2</sup> and his wife, laden with faggots*, shall have a rope of fibre round her neck!' TF 1. The Prophet's uncle, and one of his staunchest opponents. 2. A pun on the meaning of Abu-Lahab, father of flame. Page 259. *Faggots = bundles of sticks to feed a fire.

Mohammed's frustration with his uncle is clearly apparent. When people become irritated because they can not win the argument with words, sometimes resort to violence. We're all guilty of it at some point in our biographies. The violence need not be physical. Often time it is simply a raising of the voice. I have to train myself to stay calm because I tend to be very hot blooded and sometimes very quick to express my anger and frustration; indeed; my righteous indignation over something horrible such as the cold blooded murder of little Palestinian children by IDF goons or the destruction of my homeland, The Netherlands by very dumb, stupid, liberal Marxified cucks letting the Muslim invasion continue unabated. Now I am facing the same unfolding developments in Judified Canada thanks to traitors such as the present Slime Minister, Justin Trudeau, a lipping narcissist with but very mediocre intellectual abilities. A mental lightweight, in other words easily cuckolded by his Jewish controllers. Justin likes the multicultural rainbow of mentally ill people identifying in any of a dozen or more genders and don't really know what they are. In my opinion the entire LGBTQ community ought to be assessed by health care professionals and institutionalized as required where they can receive the treatment necessary to bring them back to reality and the realization; if you have a vagina, you are a Girl. If you have a penis, you are a Boy. So what if the girl wants to be a Tomboy, or the boy wants to play with a doll? Even though a girl takes on boyish characteristics, she is still a girl and same goes for boys. It is not the sex organ that is the issue. What is the problem for people is the equation of body parts with behaviour. Behaviour is only partially determined by testosterone or estrogen, there are other factors at play such as: DNA, Nurture, the individual spirit's application of Free Will, peer influences... Human beings are complex organisms. They are not all just, black or white. And, they all have a religion, whether they admit it or not. Religion is your way of life, whether you believe in a god or not. Everyone behaves according to their belief system; whether that is the shackling of one's free mind to a hive mind community, or if one is a Free Agent; a True Son of God and able to think for him or her self. We act on what we think is right; we all do that. The question is, who determines what is right and what is wrong for you? In the case of Muslims, they only know Allah's way. In the case of many Christians, it is the way of Saul of Tarsus and not the Light, Life, and Way of My Brother; Jesus of Nazareth. Most Christians are spineless wimps.

UNITY 'In the Name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful. Say: "Allah is One, the Eternal God. He begot none, nor was He begotten. None is equal to Him.' Page 259.

That's it. That's an entire chapter. Again it is repeated: Allah is alone. Allah has nobody. He needs nobody. He doesn't want somebody to love. He doesn't need somebody to love. He wouldn't love somebody to love. He is not about to find somebody to love. That is the truth we found. We have found out the lies and now all the joy that was in us, has died.*

The more and more I think about the Koran as I write these papers, and watch the horrific videos regarding the Muslim Invasion of Europe and now, NORAM, my joy is not so prevalent anymore. I have become a Man of Sorrows. Alas, My Brother, Jesus of Nazareth was never allowed to finish His ministry. He was cut off early by the minions of Lucifer and Satan. Hence, the religion that is supposedly based on His teachings is not much of a reflection of what He taught. My Brother never taught anyone to be a wimp. Remember; the Archangel Michael is depicted with a sword in hand and that is not for pruning shrubs; it is for pruning the demonic forces attempting to take over this planet and turn it into a prison for most of us. Alex Jones is completely correct when he speaks of, 'A Prison Planet.' The name, Michael, by the way, means: He who is like unto God. Hence you will never find a Muslim named, Michael because... wait for it... DRUM ROLL. ALLAH HAS NO SONS! He is just a lonely old god somewhere suspended over the planet like a suffocating blanket monster who randomly picks and chooses whom to oppress and punish, although, he is Compassionate and Merciful.

I have to take a break as I let that sit for a moment. The irony is so thick and like poisoned air, chokes my mind and I have to go have a break on my deck whilst I contemplate my missing magpies and disappeared insects...

Do you know what else is disappearing? The population of Japan. It is doubtful if the people of that irradiated island nation will ever reproduce normally again. The ongoing catastrophe in Fukushima, indeed, is jeopardizing the gene pool of the entire planet. Remember, this terrible disaster is now seeing over 500 sievert radiation emissions at the plant. Four sieverts are enough to kill a human being. Robots sent into those nuclear hot spots do not last very long. The apocalyptic nature of the suspicious 'accident' are daily documented on: Rense.com. We highly recommend that you take note of the information regarding how to protect yourself as best as possible in the 2nd banner advertisement regarding BioSuperfood.

* Thanks to Grace Slick and Jefferson Airplane for the inspiration for those lines taken from their fabulous 1967 hit, Somebody to Love from the album, Surrealistic Pillow. The song is one of the top 500 popular music compositions and reached number 5 on the top 100 billboard chart.
