A CONTINUED LOOK INTO THE KORAN

Penguin Edition, c. 1968

by Gertjan Zwigelaar, B.A., B.Ed., EDE.

PART XXIV

Allah knows that his people are not very smart, it seems, since he is constantly reminding them over and over, ad nauseum, 'Your Lord knows you best. He will show you mercy if He will, and punish you if He pleases.' Bottom of Page 232 of the Penguin Koran. "Those to whom they pray, themselves seek to approach their Lord vying with each other to be near Him. They crave His mercy and fear His punishment; for your Lord's punishment is terrible indeed." Top of page 233.

Here is one for you proselytizing Christians out there trying so hard to bring the Judeo Christian Bible to people who recognize there is a problem with that book in that the Judeo part does not mix with the Christian part. Judeo Christian is like saying that oil and water can mix. If those well meaning Christian preachers would just grab a brain and begin to think the thing through and actually see the teachings of Jesus of Nazareth, so poorly reflected in the New Testament; but that is all you had until the Urantia Book came along in 1955. Verily I tell you, the UB is the best you have for now to tell you about things you are not supposed to know about by they who want to control your mind with centuries' old incantations and hocus pocus prefer you not to see it. Remember I have stated these words before in DtRH: 'Let each man contemplate God in his own manner under his own fruit tree. Your conversation with The Father is a private affair.' Reciting someone else's words written on some dusty parchment is not a conversation but some sort of magic incantation and more likely the work of Lucifer and his batman Satan. You have a direct link to God because the Creator is in you as well as you are in the Creator. IE: God is in you and you are in God. The Urantia Book is available on line.

Mohammed was having problems convincing people at first and he bemoans the fact to Allah in a number of verses. Here is one in the middle of page 234 where Allah is pep talking Moe: 'They sought to entice you from Our revelations, hoping that you might invent some other scripture in Our name, and thus become their trusted friend. Indeed, had We not strengthened your faith you might have made some compromise with them and thus incurred a double punishment in this life and in the next. Then you should have found none to protect you from Our wrath.' On that same page Allah gives instructions regarding saying one's prayers, 'at sunset, at nightfall, and at dawn: the dawn prayer has its witnesses. Pray during the night as well, an additional duty for the fulfillment of which your Lord may exalt you to an honorable station.'

As I read those lines it admonishes the believer to pray four times per day. I had been told by Muslims that they pray five times per day. What is it? Note also that, even if you pray as Allah demands, he, 'may exalt you.' So, it still is never certain, no matter how good you are at being a Muslim. Allah is capricious. And, lest you forgot about that by the next page, he reminds you on the bottom of page 235, 'Those whom Allah guides are rightly guided; but those whom He misleads shall find no friend besides Him. We shall gather them all on the Day of Resurrection, prostrate upon their faces, deaf, dumb, and blind. Hell shall be their home: whenever its flames die down We will rekindle them into a greater fire.' Page 236. (Bolds are mine)

Let's finish the chapter titled, THE NIGHT JOURNEY with this final admonishment from Allah: 'Pray neither with too loud a voice nor in silence, but seek between these extremes a middle course. Say: "Praise be to Allah who has never begotten a son; who has no partner in His Kingdom; who needs none to defend Him from humiliation." Proclaim His greatness.' Page 237.

That proclamation of Allah's greatness is what you hear when Muslims are raping, pillaging, plundering and otherwise committing an atrocity: 'Allahu akbar.' Is it not nice of Muslim rapists to remind the White Girl they are gang banging that 'Allah is the Greatest'?

Let's move on to the next chapter on page 237: AL-HIJR. In the Name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful, Alif lam ra. (? Italics mine) As I have explained in previous issues of DtRH, those unusual words were not translatable by N.J. Dawood, whom Penguin chose to translate the Koran from its original Arabic. Those words appear and sound like some sort of ancient Egyptian, perhaps. Maybe they are just gobbly gook meant to dazzle and mesmerize.

Anyway, "These are the verses of the Book, the Glorious Koran: The day will surely come when the unbelievers will wish that they were Muslims. Let them feast and make merry; and let their hopes beguile them. They shall know the truth. Never have we destroyed a nation whose term of life was not ordained beforehand. Men cannot forestall their doom, nor can they retard it." Page 237. So, no matter what you do, you are still going to get it. So, what is the point then?

Do you recall reading in several issues of DtRH regarding how Allah made us? Remember we read about a clot of blood, a piece of flesh, and now we read, 'We created man from dry clay, from black moulded loam, and before him Satan from smokeless fire. Your Lord said to the angels: "I am creating man from dry clay, from black moulded loam. When I have fashioned him and breathed of My spirit into him, kneel down and prostrate yourselves before him." All the angels prostrated themselves, except Satan. he refused to prostrate himself. "Satan," said Allah, "why do you not prostrate yourself? He replied: "I will not bow to a mortal created of dry clay, of black moulded loam.'" Page 238.

I can not fathom that the Archangels bowed down before man, either. Can you see Archangel Michael on his bended knee before a human being? If anyone is to be seen on bended knees it would be the humans in front of the mighty Archangel; sparkling sword in hand and ready to strike whatever Satanic serpent threatens the harmony of the Kingdom.

At the top of page 239 we read, yet again, "Tell My servants that I am forgiving and merciful, and that My punishment is dire indeed."

Are you beginning to see how the Koran is constructed? Constant harping on what lies in store for those who do not embrace the teachings of Allah, tales from the Torah, and promises of joy in gardens watered with sparkling streams and fountains. Again, I repeat, one gets the impression that the Arabs, to whom the revelations were initially directed, are a very retarded people since they must be reminded almost on every page what will happen to them if they do not follow the letter of the Koran; which you have also learned is a book of laws and a very detailed social engineering construct. As you are well aware, the Koran and the zealots who have gone forth and hacked and pillaged their way across the lands of the unbelievers through the last 1400 years to spread the message have been very adept at making quivering human beings see that the Islamic highway is the better road on which to travel, notwithstanding the many horrific accidents along the way; mutilated bodies, and blood, gallons of crimson blood like rivers flowing over the Middle East and now, Europe. That awesome continent of White People is in peril and if the White Clans do not react with extreme prejudice; indeed with the zealous power of the Christian Knights from the sanguine times of the Holy Crusades, White People and all that they have built in the glorious continent will come to a very ignominious end. An end such as what Lot's wife experienced, perhaps; which is what the last part of the chapter is about; Lot and what happened to Sodom and to other places which did not revere Allah and his apostle. We will start a new chapter tomorrow.
