

DOWN THE RABBIT HOLE

An Honest Discussion of Politics, Religion, and all Kinds of Things we are not Supposed to Talk About.
VOL 2: 9th EDITION You are Free to Copy This Information. February 03, 2017

EXOTIC BUGS & DISEASES NOW BECOMING NORMAL IN NORAM

A conversation recently with a bus driver from the City of Edmonton revealed a nasty new arrival on buses in that sprawling metropolis where many sub Saharans have also taken up residence, bringing with them a variety of problems including bed bugs on city buses. Why, you wonder, do bed bugs take rides on the bus now? Have you noticed a lot of those women coming from Muslim nations wear very long dresses which are so long they drag on the ground and sweep all manner of bugs and crap off the ground. Their homes are likely infested with bed bugs and those garments pick up the bugs and bring them along for the ride. This is becoming a serious problem for ETS; Edmonton Transit Service.

As for the exotic diseases coming along with the people from Africa, we at DtRH are very concerned over the fact that the Canadian Health Minister does not see a problem with 'refugees' having illnesses and coming to Canada with them.

WHAT IS IN THE KORAN AND WHY SHOULD YOU BE CONCERNED

For those of you who have been reading Down the Rabbit Hole have learned that our Executive Desk Editor has been studying the Penguin edition of the Koran, c. 1968. He has completed that onerous task and will now give you a review of the first 100 pages. He will complete the task a hundred pages at a time in this and the next issues of DtRH. The Penguin Koran is 431 pages thick including the foreword. It was translated from Arabic by a scholar named, N.J. Dawood. The Koran begins with the Exordium on page 15, a short statement regarding the dogma of Islam which is issued in the name of Allah, the Compassionate. The Merciful. In the third sentence we already get a very good glimpse of Allah. If you are not favored; as in a believer and have gone astray, His wrath will fall on you. This is the main theme throughout the book. So, without further ado, here is our EDE.

Before I begin my analysis I want to clarify a definition for you. The word, Understand, means to stand under. In other words, you are under someone else's definition of something. You have to reach an Over Standing, whereby you are in control of the information and know the definition to be true. Hence, it is important in order to gain a real overstanding of anything one must do the hard work of researching; which in this case was a thorough reading of the Koran, pen in hand. To know your enemy you must know what he thinks and that is best reflected in the writings which he subscribes to; which form the basis of his ideology; his religion; his way of life. So, let us take a look at this so called, 'religion of peace,' in its own words; the holy Koran. Here is a look at the first 100 pages:

The main themes are: Punishment for unbelievers, Rewards for believers, and a bit of Torah history thrown in for good measure, Abraham, Moses and Noah, for example are spoken of. To get an idea regarding the primary theme of punishment for unbelievers let us take a look at how many times certain words appear in the text:

The word, Punishment in three forms: punishment, punished, punishing and what that might entail appears 29 times in 100 pages. Adjectives such as, grievous, terrible, and sternly, quite often accompany the word in question. Often time the words, scourge, hell, and fire are often added for effect. The word, scourge appears 25 times, Hell, 22 times, and Fire, appears 19 times; often time it is, hell fire that is promised to unbelievers; of whom there appear to be a legion, according to the implications in the text. Here are some quotes to encourage the idea that Islam is a 'religion of peace.' "...terrible scourge, ...dire scourge,... the scourge of the conflagration,...scourge of Hell,... woeful scourge,...hasten the destruction of the wrongdoers,...the unbelievers among the people of the Book and the pagans shall burn forever in the fire of Hell. They are the vilest of creatures,...We will record his words and make his punishment long and terrible,...He will sternly punish them for their unbelief,...Woe to those who love this life more than the life to come...' And so on and so on and on and on. There are 47 references to, unbelievers, wrongdoers, evil doers, and disbelievers. Forty seven times in 100 pages there is talk about we who do not believe the same way as Muslims and how we must be murdered. A You Tube video of footage snuck out of Saudi Arabia showed an interview with a 14 year old school boy who read out what was written in his school book. 'Behead every Christian until there are none left.' Pretty peaceful all right. Really nice to know that is what Muslims want to do. So, so peaceful...

Here is a marvelous quote on page 88 for all of you women out there who love Muslims and will spread your legs for those Islamic üntermenschen coming from Sub Saharan Africa: "Believers, you have an enemy in your wives and children: beware of them. But if you over look their offenses and forgive and pardon them, then know that Allah is forgiving and merciful." Emphases mine. You see, the book is entirely directed towards men. Women and children are property. The idea that wives and children can be your enemy is absurd, wouldn't you agree? The idea that they commit offenses and need to be punished, is an odd way for a man to have a relationship with a woman and children that is not full of suspicion and paranoia. The men are encouraged to act like Allah, and so for the really psychopathic ones the statement on page 26, gives them a hint as to how to proceed in punishing unbelievers: '...None will punish as He will punish.' This idea is where the imaginative Muslim psychos/some of them Jews dressed as ISIS freaks, get the impetus to use their imaginations and come up with ever more horrible punishments. Slicing a head off a living, wiggling human being with a dull kitchen knife is certainly one of those methods. Burning people alive in a cage is another. A video circulating on Facebook now shows negro Muslims burning Christian Negroes alive; keeping them in the fire by beating them with heavy straps and rods. That sort of horror is okay with Mark Zuckerberg. My respect for Adolf Hitler is not and therefore I am again in Facebook Jail. Last year it was 190 days!

Boiling water is mentioned four times as something an unbeliever will be given to drink, if s/he gets thirsty whilst dancing in the flames. Terror, Torment, and Torture are words you can read in those first 100 pages of repetitive themes. Of course when there is a terror, it is a, 'dreadful terror.' Within the space of one sentence, on page 72, unbelievers will become, 'tenants of Hell,' and 'heirs of Hell.'

Okay, now let's take a look at what is promised if you are a good Muslim. However, beware, '...you can not will except by the will of Allah,' the Cataclysm, first chapter of the book. '...Allah misleads whom He will and guides whom He pleases...' pg. 56. In other words, Allah is capricious. On page 100 you can read: 'Can you protect us from Allah's vengeance?...We shall never escape.' Comforting, isn't it, this Koran? Let's look at the rewards in detail: In Paradise, the good Muslim, who made it past Allah's paranoia, is promised the following: Gardens and flowing waters, young boys dressed in green, and virgins, lots of virgins; 'black eyed virgins,' 'high bosomed maidens,' (p. 52). Five times there is talk about the virgins in the first 100 pages. Boys are mentioned once, but they are plural." What is not plural is Allah. Allah is ONE god with no offspring. There is no trinity in Islam. Which sets up a strange disconnect between the believer and his god. More on that in future editions of DtRH. 'This is a warning to Mankind. Let them take heed and know that Allah is one God. Let the wise bear this in mind.' 'Gog and Magog are ravishing this land...' 'On that day Hell shall be laid bare before the unbelievers.' pg. 97. 'Woe on that day to the disbelievers...' repeated seven times on page 54!!! Peace. Until Monday. Support Mister Trump. Spread the word. Copy this pdf and hand it out. Time is crucial. We have to stop the Muslim invasion and takeover of the planet before it is too late. The lives of your sons, daughters and grandchildren are at stake. Seriously.

